Preface

The eRecording for Submitters document includes an explanation of the required format of the XML files.

Who should read this guide?

This guide is for those who submit electronic versions of real estate documents for recording to counties that use Thomson Reuters Aumentum Recorder, or Anthem products.

General information

General information about Thomson Reuters and our products can be obtained from our Web site:

Introduction Chapter

Electronic Recording (eRecording) is the electronic submission of documents to be recorded at the county office.

In this Guide

This Guide explains the following about eRecording:

- The XML Schema Definition used in the eRecording process. This describes the possible values for each data element, as well as the format required.
